

SCANZ 2011:

ECO SAPIENS

How can we re-imagine our relationships with nature?

HUI / SYMPOSIUM

... for an interdisciplinary discussion on the possible futures of human adaptation.

We invite people from different worlds — scientists, artists, social activists, cultural commentators, tangata whenua, educators, and entrepreneurs to join us in discussions on:

PERSPECTIVES ON A SPECIES

ECOLITERACY & CULTURAL ADAPTATION

RETHINKING 'RESOURCES'

Dates: 14–16th of January, 2011

Location: Owae Marae, Waitara, Taranaki

E-co sa•pi•ens | i'käləjē 'sāpēənz |

the primate species to which surviving modern humans may evolve; increased systemic thinking capacities; integrated worldviews. See also Homo
• a member of this species.

E-co ORIGIN late 19th cent. (originally as oecology):
from Greek oikos 'house' + -logy .

sa•pi•ens ORIGIN Latin, literally 'wise man.'

Intercreate.org
Intercreate Research Centre

Partners & support:

